Chicago Trip

Nisei pastor, Rev. K. Harper Sakaue reports from the Windy City: "After a twelve-year interval, I landed in Chicago again. As the teeming throng of shoppers hurried for street cars, I stood on the corner of State and Madison St. and saw rays of the sunset between huge soot-blackened structures. Heard Dr. Charles R. Goff preach on "Christ and The Conference" at downtown Chicago Temple... was good to hear pipe organ music again...saw Gerald Kakehashi, Ruth Saito and Kazue Yoshimoto at Nisei service... visited Fourth Presbyterian Church where the Rev. Oyama was preaching...Sumio Koga is in charge of young people's work there.

Chicago is chilly during mornings and evenings--the people wear topcoat and hat. I'm minus topcoat, hat, and bicycle. Think I'll qualify to be a globe-trotter on flat-feet before long!

Alice Mayeda is attending Chicago Music College... Mary Hata is with the display department of restaurant chain...saw Mrs. Hata at church, also...rode on the Chicago subway for the first time...surprize fellow passenger was Mildred Noguchi. She lives in same place as Yoshiko Tamiyama, former Block 2 Sunday School teacher. Oh, how good it is to see our Rohwer relocatees!

Former Nisei board chairman Hiroshi Hamano was introduced to First Baptist Church group where the Rev. Morikawa is associate pastor...met former RFCC members, Alice Kai, Dorothy Izumi, Ernie and George Takoda, and Lillie Ansai Takahashi...saw Mary Enosaki, too.

Relocatees are living in crowded apartments and it is hard to catch them at home...I'm trying to contact many of our people to hear their story..."Where cross the crowded ways of life..." Yes, no matter where we are, there seems to be plenty of Christian work. Ours is the task. Let us be fitted in our capacity to serve our Christ.

You'll be faithful in attending HAPPINESS HOUR, won't you?
